

Sustainability Toolkit for Food Companies

Module 2 – Regulation and Policy

Content

- Why does this matter?
- Global policy trends
- Canadian policy
- Supplier policy

Why does this matter?

- National and global sustainability regulation and policy is developing at an accelerated rate
- Supply chains are interconnected
 - Your product/ingredient may be included for your customer's compliance
- Supply chains are interconnected
 - Your ingredients may be sourced from regulation constrained location

Examples of Regulation and Policy

Europe

- EUDR – Anti-deforestation
- Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism
- Forced Labour

California

- SB 253 – Climate Disclosure Act requires Scope 1, 2 and 3 emissions reporting
- SEC Scope 1, 2 reporting rule

Canada

- Climate Risk management for Banks from the Superintendent of Financial Institutions
- SB-211 Forced Labour

Global Regulation and Policy Timelines

Canadian Regulation and Policy

Canadian Regulation and Policy Impact

Customer Policy

End